Who We Are

Enhancing Your Garments with Quality Accessories

Joy Packaging & Accessories Co. is a trusted manufacturer and supplier of premium garment and textile accessories. With years of industry experience, we deliver tailored solutions for leading garment manufacturers and international buyers. Our commitment to quality, competitive pricing, and timely delivery helps you create products that stand out in a competitive market.

Our Product

Discover a comprehensive range of high-quality garment and textile accessories, expertly crafted to enhance your products' durability, appearance, and brand value. From essential threads and labels to advanced packaging and decorative solutions, Joy Packaging & Accessories Co. delivers reliable, customizable accessories for manufacturers and brands worldwide.

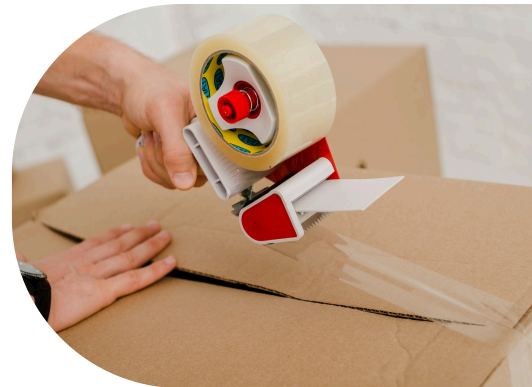

SEWING THREAD

Our sewing threads are engineered for strength, smoothness, and lasting color. Available in a wide range of colors and thicknesses, these threads are perfect for all types of garments, ensuring secure seams and a professional finish that withstands repeated wear and washing.

GUM TAPE

Seal your packages with confidence using our high-adhesion gum tape. Designed for secure closure and easy application, this tape is ideal for garment packaging and shipping, providing protection against dust, moisture, and tampering during transit.

PRINTING POLY BAG

Showcase your brand with our custom-printed poly bags, made from high-quality LDPE and available in various sizes and thicknesses. These bags offer excellent clarity and strength, keeping garments protected from dust and moisture while delivering vibrant, eye-catching branding through flexographic.

Our Product

FOOD PACKAGING POLY

Our food-grade poly bags are crafted to maintain freshness and hygiene for edible products. Made from certified materials, these bags provide a reliable barrier against moisture and contaminants, making them ideal for both retail and wholesale food packaging.

CARTON & CORRUGATED CARTON

Protect your goods with our sturdy cartons and corrugated boxes, engineered for maximum durability. These eco-friendly packaging solutions safeguard garments and accessories during shipping and storage, and can be customized in size and shape.

GARMENTS POLY

Our clear garment poly bags are designed to keep clothing items fresh, clean, and well-presented. Made from recyclable materials like LDPE and LLDP, these bags are available in various constructions-plain, with flap, or with hanger-and can be customized with your logo or care instructions.

WOVEN LABEL

Enhance your brand identity with our premium woven labels, crafted for durability and a refined look. Available in multiple finishes, colors, and sizes, these labels maintain their sharpness and color through repeated laundering, making them ideal for branding and sizing.

Our Product

HEAT TRANSFER LABEL

Achieve a seamless, tagless finish with our heat transfer labels. These soft, skin-friendly labels bond securely to fabric, offering long-lasting clarity and comfort-perfect for sportswear, children's clothing, and any garment where comfort and durability are key.

STONE SETTING

Add elegance and sparkle to your garments with our decorative stone setting services. Using precision techniques, we apply high-quality stones and crystals to fabrics, ensuring secure attachment and lasting brilliance for fashion, occasion wear, and accessories.

GRAVY OR PRINTING POLY

Our Gravy or Printing Poly bags are designed for brands that want to make a bold impression. Made from premium LDPE, these bags feature high-definition, all-over custom printing using flexographic or digital methods.

ALL-OVER TRANSFER PRINTING

Transform your garments with our all-over transfer printing service. This advanced technique allows for vibrant, full-coverage designs on fabric, ensuring consistent color and detail across the entire garment.

Our Partners & Clients

At Joy Packaging & Accessories Co., we are proud to partner with some of the most respected names in the garment and textile industry. Our commitment to quality, innovation, and reliability has made us the preferred accessories supplier for both international manufacturers and renowned fashion brands.
